Chapter 1 by Pavi Harnesberry

"Beep, Beep, Beep!"

I heard the fire alarm sound as I groggily opened my eyes, awaking from my rest. Yesterday was my sister's birthday, she turned 17. I stood up and look around the room me and my sister share. My sister approached me looking concerned.

"Are you okay?" she asked me.

"Yeah, whats going on?"

"Nothing, you're fine," she reassured me.

She picked up her radio and threw it out the window to break the glass. The opening was hardly large enough for me to fit though. She kissed my cheek and hugged me before picking me up and lowering me out of the window. As everything faded, the last thing I saw was Nicole's face smiling gently as I landed softly onto the ground.
